

I'M AFRAID

I'm afraid
Darling I'm afraid
That I will never find a quiet mind
Left me this exquisite pain
That pours o'er me like scorching rain
And burns me skin like liquid fire

Saw today
The God that ran away
And left me in this bed with my remains
Painted on a wall
A face I can recall
And I salute
The sun in view

I'm afraid
Darling I'm afraid
That I will never live a quiet life
See my darkened tired eyes
Incapable of telling lies
What god would leave us here to die

I'm afraid
The plans we often made
Were never really meant to come to light
Painted on a wall
A face I can recall
And I salute
The sun in views
And I salute
The sun in view
