

THE IDIOT

Now you've crossed my lonely life
Held me near and changed my mind
I'm moving on, moving on, moving on again
I'm moving on, moving on, moving on again

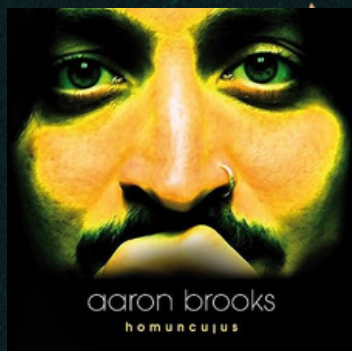

Time with you I wanna spend
As a lover, as a friend
And although I know the end
I would do it all again

Every cigarette
Salts ash on this bed
Bless this smoke-filled room
And bless its devils too
I can't believe
This is not a dream
With all its blurred lines
Forged in hurried themes

Time with you I wanna spend
As a lover, as a friend
And although I know the end
I would do it all again

Why avert those piercing eyes
I could never tell you lies
Does it make you sad to know
All what comes will someday go

Time with you I wanna spend
As a lover, as a friend
And although I know the end
I would do it all again
